Description

Individual Advertising Platform

Goal

We are trying to make a webmaster and blogger-friendly platform which will allow both publishers and advertisers to commit advertising campaigns at low costs and high quality. This platform was developed using the principle of quality over quantity, therefore, we want to promote individual businesses such as one's own advertising network (e.g. considering one has 20 active websites and one wants to monetize their activity then NextAds.ro is the most suitable platform)

Proudly launched in November 2012 at
Hackover: A hacker's night out HACKATHON
